

HITCHCOCK DECLARES SENATE WILL TURN DOWN TREATY AMENDMENTS

FOOD SENT EAST CAUSES H.C.L. IN OHIO

Reports to State's Officials Showing
This as One Fact.

Lack of Labor is Another Element in the Rural Districts.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 3.—From Ohio
counties which are among the one products, the greatest quantities of poultry and dairy products, thousands of pounds of poultry and butter
and thousands of dozens of eggs are shipped to eastern markets for sale
or direct sale to consumers,
while Ohio suffers from the high cost of living.

In some counties the reason assigned is inadequacy of market facilities, leading to the conclusion that one step in the warfare against living costs should be improvement of the markets in the county seats of those territories which lead in production.

Food production generally in Ohio
has not kept pace wholly with increased demands of consumers, decreased production being marked in certain spots on the state map.

Important among the reasons assigned are the migration of young men from the farms of Ohio to industrial centers and lessening of the productivity of the person by shortening
of the hours of labor.

The above are outstanding points
among deductions drawn from an analysis of reports received at the office of the attorney general, in response to the department's statewide canvass of county prosecutors
regarding the underlying causes for the abnormal scale of living costs
and of reports of grand juries in counties where juries were impaneled
specifically to study the living problem.

Publicity Great Weapon.
A general survey of the reports
indicates almost a unanimous opinion that publicity and public opinion are the greatest weapons the consumer has in trying to maintain fair prices.

Emphasized in numbers of the reports are those other reasons assigned as contributing to the existing situation, some of them applying to Ohio conditions generally, others
having local application.

Inadequacy of transportation facilities, particularly as to coal and grain and delays rumors to perishable foodstuffs.

Storage of eggs, butter, poultry
and meats for purposes of maintaining high prices.

Illegal combination to maintain
prices, and profiteering by speculators.

Indicative of the absorbed interest
with which all parts of the state are considering the problem is the general response of prosecuting attorneys to the call of the state for information and for reports detailing local information in those counties in which special grand juries have not been called, points in connection with the food price war will be considered by juries meeting regularly
this month and near the first of October.

GARDENERS' OFFICIAL SEEKING RELEASE

TOLEDO, Sept. 3.—Warren E.
Replogie, former official of the Toledo Gardeners' Exchange, who was arrested yesterday for refusing to answer questions asked by the prosecuting attorney, will have a hearing
late today or a writ of habeas corpus by which he was released.

Replogie, after refusing to answer
in the county suit against the exchange, which is charged with price-
fixing, was ordered placed under arrest and was handcuffed.

ONCE SENTENCED TO DEATH
BY GERMANS, BELGIAN GIRL
HERO FINDS A HOME HERE

Mlle. Marie Louise Gombier
has come from Belgium to make her home in Los Angeles
with Mrs. L. Dowdy, an American Red Cross nurse. After the Germans captured Brussels they installed a wireless plant in the Gombier home. She tried to destroy it and was sentenced to death. Her sentence was commuted to imprisonment and
after five weeks she escaped
and made her way to the Canadian lines near Ypres. There she served as a nurse, winning the Croix de Guerre with two palms for bravery.

KNOX'S POLICY PLEASES EGYPT

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Great enthusiasm demonstrations were held at Cairo and Alexandria on Saturday and Sunday in consequence of the receipt of a telegram declaring the foreign relations committee of the United States senate had declared that Egypt should be independent,
according to a Cairo despatch to the Daily Mail. It is said that Said
Pasha Zaghoul, head of the Egyptian nationalist deputation in Paris was the author of the telegram to Cairo.

No action has been taken by the
foreign relations committee of the senate regarding Egypt that would seem to warrant demonstrations in that country. The committee recently gave a hearing in which the claims of the Egyptian nationalists were voiced but no further action has been taken by the committee.

AKRON, Sept. 3.—Thieves early today forced an entrance into the Portage News company here, opened
the safe and escaped with $700.

ANTI-BOLSHEVİK FORCES OCCUPY PART OF KIEV; REDS ASK FOR PEACE

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Anti-Bolshevik forces occupied the southern outskirts of Kiev today, according to a wireless despatch sent out by the soviet headquarters in Moscow and picked up here. The despatch states that the fighting is proceeding.

BERNE, Sept. 3.—The Russian Bolsheviks have proposed peace negotiations following the rout of their forces which are surrounded, according to an official announcement
received here.

The foregoing despatch, while it does not refer to any particular district in Russia, probably has reference to the Lithuanian front where the Bolsheviks were said on Tuesday
to be surrounded and to be offering to make peace.

COLUMBUS TAKES TURN AT WALKING

Street Car Strike
Suspends Traffic
Throughout City.

Demands of Union
Include Increase in Pay and 8 Hour Day

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
COLUMBUS, Sept. 3.—Columbus
motormen and conductors who went on strike early today, completely shutting down street car service, announced that they had made the following demands upon the Columbus
Railway Power and Light Company:
Back pay granted them by the war
labor board more than a year ago.
Reinstatement of John Ryan, a meter reader, whose case the war
board refused to consider.

Closed shop.
Eight-hour day.

Fifty-five cents an hour for first three months and 60 and 65 cents for the next two months.
Union carmen said the real cause of the strike was an alleged breaking of a contract on the part of the company by refusing to arbitrate differences. An agreement signed a year ago called for arbitration, they said.
Mayor George J. Korb and the Chamber of Commerce were busy trying to bring about a settlement of the strike. The rail-high company made no efforts to operate cars with non-union employees. No settlement was made by the company.

Motormen and conductors now receive from 41 to 45 cents an hour.
Later it became known that the union demands upon the company call
for wage increases to power plant
employees, garage hands, truck drivers, boiler repairers, trouble shooters, meter testers, track laborers and other employees.

The strikers declared that employees in the company's power plants
which supply electric current to most of the homes in the city and to many of the larger manufacturing plants
and business houses, may go out also. Many business concerns were making preparations to obtain current from the municipal light plant.

KILLED IN COLLISION

TOLEDO, Sept. 3.—George Braht, 74, an engineer on the Wabash railroad for 45 years, was killed here
last night when the yard engine of which he was in charge, collided with another switching locomotive in the Wabash yards. Braht was taken off the road recently and placed in the Toledo yards to conform to the government age regulations, it is said.

ANTI-BOLSHEVİK FORCES OCCUPY PART OF KIEV; REDS ASK FOR PEACE

spatch from Moscow received here
reports that Admiral Kolchak, head of the anti-Russian government, has evacuated Omsk and transferred his headquarters to Irkutsk.

BERLIN, Sept. 3.—The foreign office has denied a report attributed to the American Press to the effect that England, France and Italy have secretly agreed with Germany that the latter will procure raw materials
and finished products from only those three entente countries.

Information has been received from Wilhelmstrasse that "such an agreement is neither in existence nor contemplated," and that "the obvious
purpose of the report was to scare American business men arriving in Germany in increased numbers to investigate conditions and to re-
commercial relations."

Egyptian Princess Wishing Wounded U. S.
Flier Luck in the New York-Toronto Race

One of the most interested spectators when the American aviators whirled away from Roosevelt Field, Long Island in the New York-Toronto race, was Princess Della Patra of Egypt. She is seen here bidding goodbye to Lieutenant Daniel Gish, U. S. A., just before the start. Gish has not yet recovered from wounds sustained in air battles in Europe.

PERSHING MADE A FULL RANK GENERAL WITHOUT DISSSENT IN U. S. SENATE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—John J.
Pershing will become a full general
in the American army Wednesday.

This was made certain when the senate passed, without discussion or
a dissenting vote, the bill making the American commander a permanent general.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Arrangements for the reception of General John J. Pershing and the palace of the first division of the regular army, with the American commander
in chief at its head, next Tuesday
were completed at a conference between Major General Shant, commander of the port of embarkation,
and the mayor's reception committee.

General Pershing's ship, the Lexiathan, is expected to reach New York next Sunday or Monday, and from the time he lands until he leaves for Washington, a few days later, he will be the guest of the city of New York.

A patrol boat, carrying the reception committee and a number of high officials, who are expected to include
Secretary of War Baker and General March, chief of staff, will meet the Lexiathan at the entrance to New York bay and will escort the liner to the same Hoboken pier on which President Wilson disembarked
on his return from Europe.

After exchanging greetings with
the reception committee at the pier,
General Pershing will be taken on board the patrol boat and brought to the Battery, where he will be met by detachments of police mounted on horses and motorcycles, who will escort him to his hotel.

In the first division parade General Pershing will have for his staff
all the generals who have commanded
the famous unit since the declaration of war. They will include Major General William Sibert, who took the division overseas and later returned to take charge of the chemical warfare service; Lieutenant General Robert L. Bullard who left the division on July 12, 1918 to be command of the second army; Major General Charles P. Summerall, who succeeded General Bullard, Brigadier General Frank Parker, who relieved General Summerall in October,
and Major General E. F. McGlachlin,
the present commander.

One of the most interesting features of the parade will be the presence of the first American field commander in the great war and the first American colors borne on the front
These colors will be brought from Washington, where they are preserved as national souvenirs of the tremendous struggle. Another novel feature will be the presence of the well-known workers who were attached to the division.
At division headquarters it is estimated that between 22,000 and 25, 000 men will take part in the parade
which will take five or six hours to pass a given point and will be 14 miles long. All former members of the division are invited to take part.

SLAYERS OF COOPER NEARING ARREST, AUTHORITIES CLAIM

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 3.—
"Robin J. Cooper was killed by two or more men, and the murderers will soon be apprehended," was the statement made by Police Chief Parrithell. The chief did not reveal the theory upon which he was working.
It now is said that no woman was connected with the tragedy in any way, so far as the police know.

In pursuing a suggestion that Mr.
Cooper might have been the victim
of bootleggers, all Nashville men suspected of having been implicated
with the traffic have been made to disclose to the satisfaction of the police their movements Thursday night
when Mr. Cooper was called from his home in Belle Meade Park, to be seen no more by members of his family until Saturday, when his battered body had been found in Richland creek.

A man employed in the Cooper
home, Miss David Perkins, said that at 5 o'clock Thursday night she heard some one calling Mr. Cooper and went to a window overlooking the front porch. She saw only the shadow of the man, who stood in the porch, but joined Mr. Cooper in the yard and left with him in the automobile. The identity of the caller and the significance of Mr. Cooper's remark made as the automobile left,
if you had asked for more you could have had it, are believed to be the most important questions involved in the case.

OPPONENTS' PLAN FOR A SEPARATE PEACE TERMED POLTROONRY AND FOLLY

PRESIDENT STARTS UPON HIS SPEAKING TOUR THIS EVENING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—President
Wilson will leave the national capital tonight on his speech-making tour
of the country to urge before the American people early ratification of the peace treaty and its league of nations covenant by the senate
without qualifying reservation.

The first stop of the presidential special will be at Columbus, Ohio,
where the president will deliver the first of his scheduled thirty addresses Thursday.

Before leaving tonight, the president planned to issue invitations to laborers, financiers, manufacturers
and farmers to attend a conference
for the consideration of pending industrial problems. He also hoped,
it was said, to complete all arrangements for the conference so that it may be held immediately upon his return at the end of this month.

President Wilson will be accompanied on his trip by Mrs. Wilson, Red Adair and Cary T. Grayson, the president's personal physician and Secretary Tamm. A corps of stenographers, secret service men and some thirty press representatives
also will be included in the party.

Although the itinerary calls for 30 speeches in the principal cities of the west, it is believed the president
also will be compelled to deliver many smaller platform addresses at smaller towns along the route.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 3.—Everything was in readiness today for a monster
reception to President Wilson, who will come here tomorrow to deliver the first of a series of addresses on the league of nations and the peace treaty.

The president is expected to arrive
in Columbus about 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. His address is to be delivered at Memorial hall about 12 30 o'clock and he will leave early in the afternoon for Indianapolis,
where the second address will be made.

Army airplanes, equipped with a new wireless telephone device, will meet the president's train outside of the city and will inform crowds in down-town Columbus of the train's progress into the city.

Actors' Strike Nearing Close

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Settlement of the actors' strike within 24 hours
was confidently predicted today by members of the Actors' Equity association.

While no formal announcement
was forthcoming this morning from either the managers or the officials of the Actors' association, those who believed the end of the controversy
was at hand based their hopes on a report that the managers' association by a vote of 28 to 6 decided last night to accord recognition to the Actors' Equity association, the principal point at issue, and that the Actors' Equity league, the rival to the Equity association, had temporarily ceased its campaign for membership.

CRUSHED BY DERRICK.
FINDLAY, Sept. 3.—William C.

Findlay municipal water works, was crushed to death this afternoon when a derrick fell on his body while he was pulling tubing from a gas
well at the Limestone Ridge pumping station, ten miles east of Findlay near Van Lue. He has been in the city service for more than 20 years.

Senator Denounces Attack on League Suicidal For U. S.

America Would Be
"Out in Cold" By
Failure to Ratify.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Declaring
the real purpose of the foreign relations committee majority in amending the peace treaty was to kill the treaty entirely and that such a course would be suicidal to the United States, Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, democratic leader, asserted
in a senate speech today that the majority of the senators, never would accept any of the committee
changes.

The treaty opponents, he said,
"crawl on the ground with a microscope searching for pitfalls," in the league of nations and overlook substantial benefits which the treaty
would bring the nation.

Knox's Folly
The proposal of Senator Knox, republican, Pennsylvania, that the treaty be rejected and a separate peace made with Germany was characterized by the speaker as an insane "mixture of poltroonery and folly."

"By a vote of nine to eight" said
Senator Hitchcock, "the committee
on foreign relations is to bring squarely before the senate the question of defeating the pending treaty.
Suppose the senate should vote in favor of the Shantung amendment or any other amendment, what would happen?"

"Either the president would refuse to go further with the treaty, or he would submit the amendment to the nations associated with the United States. Does any one believe they would accept it? Does anyone believe that Great Britain, who has already ratified the treaty and is also under a pledge to Japan with regard to Shantung, would accept the Shantung amendment? Does any one think that France, also under a pledge to Japan, would ratify this change? Does any one suppose that Japan herself would submit to this humiliation before the eyes of the world?"

U. S. Cannot Retire
"I cannot conceive of any intelligent and candid man who would assume such a thing as possibility. We would be met by an instant refusal to accept the amendment, and then where would the United States find itself in this international settlement? We would find ourselves out in the cold, isolated from the rest of the world. The work of ratifying the treaty would proceed without us."

"The treaty itself provides that when three nations in addition to Germany have signed, it shall go into effect. It is easy to see the enormous benefits which Great Britain
and France will derive from treaty.
They will not take any chances. It is preposterous to suppose that Japan will delay its ratification. The result is beyond all question."

Benefits of Treaty
"What then will the United States
do? Some say that congress can pass a joint resolution declaring a state of peace with Germany. Others say the United States can negotiate a separate and independent treaty.
Those who talk this way evidently have no conception of the enormous benefits, which the United States derives from this treaty."

Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska,
the leading administration spokesman in the senate, was invited to the White House today for a final conference before President Wilson starts tonight on his speaking tour to the Pacific coast in the interest of the peace treaty.

METHODISTS THROUGH TO FINDLAY FOR ANNUAL SESSION

Rev. W. D. Cole, D. D. of Lima, Preaches Opening Sermon Tuesday

CABINET CONFERRING

Bishop Anderson Just Returned From Europe Presides at Meetings

FINDLAY, Sept. 3.—Findlay is honored and graced today by the presence of a great many Methodist ministers who are here to attend the seventh annual meeting of the West Ohio conference.

The conference session will be held at the First M. E. church and conference opened Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock with Bishop William F. Anderson, of Cincinnati, presiding.

It is expected that more than one thousand preachers and laymen will be here during the week and the most careful and extensive preparations have been made by the congregation of the First church through Dr. C. C. Peale, pastor, and capable committees, to take splendid care of the visitors and make them feel that their time for the week has fallen in a pleasant place.

A vast majority of the visitors will be entertained at private homes, while of course, the hotels get their full share. All will be comfortably located. Dr. Peale gave that feature of the arrangements his personal attention and that means that no essential detail was overlooked.

The West Ohio is one of the great out conferences of Methodism. It has a great body of distinguished ministers on its roster and hundreds of churches are embodied within its geographical boundaries.

The session here this week will be of intense interest. Many new questions are up for discussion and decision because of the world war, and Bishop Anderson, who arrived here from Europe last week, will have much to say about Methodist reconstruction. He was in charge of the war work for the Methodist church in the allied countries and he has traveled in all of them and made a close study of conditions.

Bishop Anderson speaks this afternoon at 1 o'clock. He is one of the big orators of pulpit headlines of conference and hundreds will be out to hear him.

The cabinet held a meeting Tuesday at the bishop's headquarters in the Turkey home. The cabinet is where all the heavy work of conference is done. The sessions are secret and at them the great questions concerning appointments and other matters are threshed out between the bishop and his district superintendents. The cabinet can recommend, but the bishop has the last word in the matter.

Board of Examiners.
The board of examiners worked at the first church and it was a strenuous day.

The board consists of the Dr. Charles Bennett, chairman; the Rev. Albert H. Weaver, of Paulding, registrar, and Revs. J. B. Ashman, G. P. Austin, G. F. Barber, H. J. Jewell, E. S. Keller, E. L. Motter, Robert Kennedy, J. H. Donney, E. A. Strother, W. P. Martin, G. A. Scott, J. L. Corley, L. H. Gressley, Addyman Smith, H. G. Curless, Ralph Wright and J. C. Roberts. A class of 35 fine looking young men were examined Tuesday. The examination was held in the upstairs part of the Sunday school room and the examining committee will make its report later in the week.

As an athletic incidental the applicants carried the tables used for the examination from the yard in front of the church to the examination room. The tables had just been completed and the deliveryman placed them in the yard.

It requires four years to complete the course of study before applicants are admitted into full membership. Usually a class from eight to a dozen young men are ordained as ministers at each annual conference. That will be about the number this year and it does not keep up with the demands of the church.

Rev. Walter D. Cole, D. D. pastor of Trinity church, Lima, preached the annual sermon Tuesday evening. It was pronounced a heart searching discourse.

FEW LADIES ARE AT COUNCIL MEET

"Ladies night" in city council last evening was not the success hoped for, and there were just six members of the fair sex present to witness the enactment of the new laws. They were called upon by President Dempster and Mrs. Leah M. Butler, president of the Federated clubs made a short talk on the local road situation, while Mrs. S. M. Williams, public secretary of the child's welfare league told of its activities.

On behalf of residents in the eastern section of the city, Dr. Josephine Pierce thanked council for the installation of a wading pool in Lincoln park. The co-operation of council relative to a better movement for the education of children in domestic science was sought by Miss Pauline Hyman, instructor in the south side high school.

Mrs. W. E. Bayly told of some plans formulated by the federation of clubs in Lima and Miss Ida Nickel rural nurse, told of her duties.

JUDGE MAKES NEW AUTOMOBILE LAW PLAIN TO DRIVERS

Amount of Traffic on Thoroughfare Governs Speed of the Car

MUST SOUND HORN

At Street Intersections—Heavy Vehicles Must Move Over

For the benefit of motorists who do not fully understand the new speed law which recently went into effect, Judge Ernest M. Botkin, this morning made the act clearer by a statement to the Times. The new law, he says, made each case of speeding an individual case to be tried on its own merits.

The judge continued: "A man may be going at a good rate of speed in the city, and yet not be violating the speed law. The driver must use his head, and be governed entirely by the amount of traffic on the thoroughfare. If the traffic is not congested he is allowed to run faster than on streets which are the scenes of much traffic."

"Thirty miles an hour in districts not congested and where streets are clear and there are no side streets that have to be watched, at an hour of the day or night when there is little traffic on the streets, may be considered a reasonable rate of speed," the court said.

All persons driving more than 15 miles an hour in districts where there are schools and to and about public parks, where pedestrian traffic is heavy, will be arrested, he said. In downtown sections, too, the court said, the operation of a motor vehicle at a speed greater than 15 miles an hour shall be considered a violation of the new speed law.

Promises Support
After explaining the various sections of the traffic ordinance, the court called particular attention to persons driving on the wrong side of a street, cutting around about the wrong side of a street car, operating automobiles with the exhaust open, the blowing of whistles instead of regulation horns of warning and cutting corners.

"The interest and safety of both pedestrian traffic and persons driving automobiles are to be regarded," said the court. It is not the intention of the court to work a hardship on persons operating motor vehicles, but to inculcate a respect for the laws, thereby insuring their own safety as well as that of the general public.

The Autoist's Enemy
"The worst enemy of the driver of an automobile is the speed fiend and the man who violates traffic ordinances. It is really more to the interests of autoists that these laws and ordinances be enforced than to the pedestrian public as the number of persons struck by autos violating the rules governing their operation, are few in comparison with auto collisions and other accidents."

Citizens are asked to aid the police department in curtailing the number of accidents. They are requested not to "jaywalk" but to cross streets only at intersections.

Wagons Move Over
Heavily loaded, slow moving vehicles will be ordered to progress along the extreme right hand side of the street, so that the fast vehicles may pass and not be forced to slow to the wrong side of the street in so doing, he said.

Motorists must slow down at intersections the court said, and sound their horns before coming to the corner. If these rules are adhered to, the judge believes, 95 per cent of the accidents will be eliminated.

BUCKLAND CHILD DIES OF INJURIES

The remains of Francis Lee, aged 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lee of Buckland, were interred Tuesday, the lad's death having occurred Sunday, August 31, the result of injuries he sustained last Wednesday evening, when he fell under the wheels of a heavy manure spreader in operation on the Rudolph Whetstone farm, at Buckland. The boy's head was crushed and it was recognized that he could scarcely recover. However, he lingered until Sunday before death came.

SURPRISES AWAITING SCHOOL CHILDREN IN COMING YEAR

At Least Lecturer Hawkins Gave That Pointer to County Teachers

URGES UNEXPECTED

Deems Best For Pupils Not to Know What's Coming

This story is a warning to Lima school "kids" who on next Monday morning will commence another year of study. Watch your teachers this year, because they are going to try a new trick on you this year. They are planning to "keep you guessing." It's a new game advocated by Superintendent Wilson Hawkins, who was one of the lecturers at the recent Allen county teachers institute.

Superintendent Hawkins advocates the "unexpected" in dealing with students. According to his views the schoolroom is a battleground on which a continual state of pitched warfare between the pupils and the teacher is going on. The pupil usually does the attacking, and it is a matter of strategy and skill as to whether the teacher wins or loses.

Now the way for the teachers to deal with them according to the lecturer, is to surprise them. The boy who knows just how the teacher will react to his activities is the one who is hard to manage that is if she gets impatient or angry, but if she turns a trick on him he will be taken unawares, and the teacher can quickly subjugate him.

He says that it is the element of the unexpected that won the war in Europe, and that it is the element of the unexpected that wins in every other form of human endeavor.

PROSECUTOR CLEARS CRIMINAL DOCKET OF ANCIENT CASES

Prosecutor Cable has placed a nolleprosequi against a list of offenders, and has cleared the docket before the beginning of the September term of court. In many of the cases, the persons indicted are at present serving time in the penitentiary. Some of the cases extend back to 1912.

The cases notified by the prosecutor are:

George Troxel, Henry Johnson, Charles Moore, William Truesdale and Leonard Rissan, playing a game for money; Edward J. Royston, forger; Francis M. McCoy, abandonment; George Murray, robbery and larceny; Walter Moore, two counts, abandonment; Howard Davis, larceny; Charles Bowers, forgery; Arthur Hawk, abandonment; Rose Elmsen and Robert Barber, abandonment of minor children; Harry Myers, forgery.

William Nozle, David Myers and William Mitchell, larceny; Charles E. Superstition Keeps Some Folks From Paying Their Doctors' Bills

Did you ever hear of a superstition to the effect that if you pay your doctor bill in full you will get sick that same week?

Lots of people believe in it.

No, that's not kidding.

"Did you say my bill is $25, doctor? Well, I'll pay you $24. I want to owe you a dollar because if I should pay you all the bill, I should surely be sick within a week," say numbers of people.

Of course some people so thoroughly believe in the superstition that they won't pay any of the doctor bill at all. But there are many honest, good-paying people who prefer to owe the doctor $1 or $2 for fear they will get sick immediately if they aren't owing him.

It is a well known fact that people are more lax about their doctor bills than about any other debts. They say the grocer, the landlord, the merchant before they pay the doctor.

Some people don't even expect to pay the doctor. They make no excuses about it. They don't even go to the trouble to invent a hard luck tale. They simply don't pay. Statement after statement is sent. There is no reply. It is only when a hard-fister collector calls at the door and informs them curtly that the bill must be paid or they'll have to appear in court, that the extor-patient considers the services he received when he was ill.

And they know that nine times out of ten the doctor won't sue. "They know we aren't business men," said one doctor ruefully.

"And they've really got the better of us. The unscrupulous ones take advantage of it."

"Foreign clients pay better than American people. Foreign patients look up to their doctor with an admiration that amounts almost to reverence. And they pay their bills promptly. They would not think of letting the bill go. The reason is that all thru Europe, doctors must upon being paid immediately. For- eigners in this country, having been accustomed to paying the doctor promptly, make better patients than Americans."

TEXAS GOVERNOR FOR INTERVENTION OF U. S. IN MEXICO

FORT WORTH, Texas, Sept. 3.—Governor W. P. Hobby, of Texas speaking before the convention of the Kiwanis Club here again declared himself in favor of intervention by the United States in Mexico.

While not mentioning his name, Governor Hobby touched on the recent attack on John A. Shillady, of New York, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at Austin.

"I believe in Texas only and just as strongly do I believe that Texas should say how the affairs of the state should be conducted." The governor said, "and I believe in sending any narrow-minded, double-chinned reformer who comes here with the end in view of stirring up racial discontent, back to the north where he came from, with a broken law if necessary."

CUSTER ASSUMES RECORDERS DUTIES

Guy Custer, newly elected county recorder has taken over the office, and E. E. Fisher who has served in that capacity for two terms has retired from duty. J. W. Haller and Miss Grace Fisher were retained as deputies, and A. D. Staup, of Spencerville has been named a deputy. Miss Henrietta Whirl, also of Spencerville has accepted the position of stenographer.

JUDGMENT ADMITTED.

John A. Enslin, in common pleas court today confessed judgment in the sum of $3,720 to William Enslin, averred to be due on a note.

Just What She Needed.
"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets some time ago and they proved to be just what I needed," writes Mrs. Volta Bankson, Chillicothe, Mo. "They not only relieved me of indigestion but toned up my liver and rid me of backache and dizziness that I had been subject to for some time. They did me a world of good and I will always speak a good word for them." non-wed-fr

JURY GIVES $65,000

TO MAN NEAR DEATH
CUMBERLAND, Md., Sept. 3.—J. Walter Vidmeyer, of Hagerstown, conductor on the Western Maryland railway, was awarded $65,000 damages here by a jury in a removed suit against the United States railway administration for a broken neck sustained when brushed off his train by a projection from a car on an adjoining track.

Widmeyer, it is claimed, is in such condition that the least jar or fall may cause his death.

He sued the railway administration for $75,000 damages.

Today a new photoplay will be presented featuring Tom Moore in "One of the Finest" a romance of the New York police force.

MANY ENGLISH WORDS COME FROM ARABIA

Through the crusades Europe came into contact with Arabia, and gained immense profit from the intercourse which followed, with a people more highly civilized than its own inhabitants. It must not be forgotten that the Arabians in Asia and the Moors in Spain kept the sacred torch of learning alight, while Europe still groped in the darkness
of a semi-barbarism.

To the Arabs we are indebted for the preservation of Aristotle, and for much of our knowledge of Grecian astronomy and medicine, which reached Europe through translations from Arabic into Latin. Many of our current English words came direct from the Arabic such as zero, almanac, algebra, cipher, nadir, zenith, alkali, camphor, alcohol and amber.

These words, with their pronounciation and definition, are all to be found in The New Universities Dictionary, now being distributed by the Lima Times, almost as a gift to its readers. It contains in addition to the dictionary proper, a condensed encyclopaedia of information for every-day use. Our coupon in today's paper explains how this valuable book may be obtained.

FINN-HOGAN.

A quiet wedding, one to which only the relatives and close friends were bidden, was that of Tuesday morning at 7:00 o'clock at St. Gerard's church, when Miss Theresa Hogan and Paul E. Finn were united in marriage. They were attended by Miss Helen Finn, sister of the bridegroom, and Lawrence Brown.

The bride was attractive in a modish gown of taupe satin with hat and shoes of corresponding shade. She wore pink roses. The maid-of-honor was attired in black satin. She wore a black hat.

Following the ceremony breakfast was served at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, D. C. Hogan, of North Elizabeth street. Here a color scheme of pink and green was used effectively in the decorating the rooms and in the appointments of the breakfast.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Finn, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Finn, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Basinger, Mrs. Standish, Miss Samlinger, Mrs. James O'Neil and son, Miss Bertha and Miss Mary Basinger, Leo and Harold Finn, James Walter Basinger, Ray H. XXIV. — SELF JUSTIFICATION

Since Bob Calloway was the first grown man to notice me, I naturally thought that I loved him madly. Women never forget the first man who looks beyond the child and sees the woman. I even persuaded myself that his marriage late in the summer had wrecked my life. I recall that I went around all one afternoon with an expression that I fondly imagined was the essence of tragedy and declined an invitation for ice cream from an adoring boy neighbor who used to hang over the dividing fence every afternoon and draw, "Say, Nell, may I come over?"

As I sat curled up on the river bank, I recalled hordes of other men whom I thought I had loved madly, but I resolutely shut my eyes to all of them and persuaded myself that Bob Calloway was the one love of my life. Perhaps I chose him because he was so eminently desirable. No woman's life is complete without the memory of a "grand passion" and Heaven pity her whose one memory is bold-headed or bow-legged.

Fortunately, I had a splendid specimen to mourn. At 23, Bob Calloway was a young god just stepped down from the portals of Olympus. He was big and strong with the finest chin in the world. But underneath his dominant strength—that superb strength of mind and body which is given in unfair degree to some—was an unsuspected and disarming gentleness.

The gods had been kind to him, but they shed their greatest favor in protecting him from me.

That first evening, after the party, he had escorted me home with as much deference as though I had been a grown young lady. At my gate he smiled down at me with a sudden twinkling in his eyes. Then he leaned forward quickly, as if he meant to kiss me. At my recoil, he laughed outright and the mischief in his eyes deepened.

"Just wait, young lady, you'll not do that so quickly when you're really grown. I'll come back then."

But he never kept his promise. He came to call on me many times and we spent many moonlit evenings together in the hammock in the garden, but he never kissed me. I was a child to him—an amusing child—that was all!

Strange to remember a man because he was the only one who never kissed me!

It was not a pleasant thought, and I closed my eyes to shut out the faces that suddenly clustered round me. Even a flirt must have moments of remorse. But she may also be trusted to turn the most damning evidence into self-justification.

In my retreat by the river I shamelessly evolved the most perfect alibi for myself. I persuaded myself that I was the victim of a man's inconstancy. I recalled a great love, a passion that paled all other emotions. Once in so often, I told myself unblushingly, a pure and beautiful love is born in the heart of a child, and when, bruised and beaten, its brief life flickers out, the substance remains to poison subsequent life.

I saw myself seeking something to fill the void Bob Calloway's place had left in my life. The years went by to find me still seeking, more and more recklessly, as the knowledge gradually came to me that I should never find what I sought. So I took the coward's way and stilled the hunger of my heart with the drug of perpetual emotional excitement.

It was a charming explanation and so nicely accounted for my flirtatious avidity.

The sun had sunk to the edge of the distant hills before I rose to go. I felt as complacent as a cat which has stolen the cream. Was I not a heroine to greet the world with a smile and the shadow of a dead love in my heart?

At the hotel I found a message from Paul informing me that he was detained for the evening and would dine downtown.

It was really too bad for it was the night of the Friday evening dancing class and I had declined Captain Prazier's escort because my husband had wished to take me. I had furthermore, broken an engagement with the captain for that afternoon, which I had left Alice's early to keep.

I went to the phone and called him up.

A Chance to Live

(By Zoe Beckley)

POVERTY'S PINCH.

A stirring from Robbie and a commencing cry for his dinner roused Annie from her thoughts. The utterance disappeared. At least, she had Robbie. And at least there was sunlight in their three small rooms and a vacant lot not far away. Maybe there was an athletic club or gymnasium nearby for Bern.

She was back again among the tenebrous but at least now she had some precious possessions to make life sweet.

The Carroll's little flat was not a half mile from where Annie had lived most of her mother's childhood. It was in East Sixteenth street, near the river, Aggie chose it because the wind was of two rooms, the living room and kitchen, looked southward over an unbuild-on acre, which the caretaker said "belonged to the city."

It was an ugly bit of land, in kept and disfigured with rusty cans, old shoes, sodden wads of what had once been articles of dress, broken bottles and other debris, and a few defunct wagon wheels whose spokes lay prone and blackening like the bones of cattle in a desert waste.

But the space let in the sun and air, even if it did smell of cans, houses when the wind was from their direction. And you could sometimes hear boat whistles. Annie loved boat whistles. They suggested far off, mysterious places, and the rest-fulness of the sea. The sound of a factory whistle was hateful; of a boat whistle delicious.

For their three rooms the Carrolls paid $12 a month. It was a higher rate, considering advantages, service and cubic feet of air, than was demanded for apartments near the homes of the rich.

There was, of course, no bath, for it was one of the old type "cold water flats." Water for bathing was heated on the stove in the kitchen, and throughout "the block" the family tub was usually to be seen hanging on a nail outside the tenant's back windows.

Annie could have rented rooms of more modern type. "Model" tenements were just being built, with "outside stairways," cement floors and good plumbing. But they were all far from the neighborhood she felt at home in, and for every advantage of sanitation there was something undesirable. Sunshine was lacking or else the rental was too high for Bernard's slim wage.

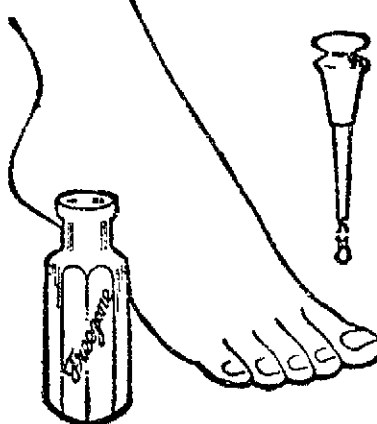

The block was depressing. The tenements on either side were of a uniform, old-fashioned type, with battered doors, usually open, and slattern hallways that were dark and had the composite breath of many cookings, many washings, many sleepings—a smell as characteristic of the tenements as the aroma one sniffs behind the scenes is of the theatre or the faint, cool odor of old incense, candle smoke, flowers and leather prayer books is of a church.

There were little shops here and there grayer and less prosperous than those of the avenues, their wares more wilted, their window displays fly-specked and disorderly. Annie's neighbors were of pretty much all nationalities. A mile to the south was a solid ghetto. Between that and Fourteenth street were chiefly Italians. But at this time the East Tens and Twenties were polio-

SUCCESSFUL PARTY

The members of the Epsilon Fraternity should feel highly elated over the huge success of their party, which was a feature of Tuesday evening at the Country club. A more enjoyable party has not been seen for some time, everyone was in the best of spirits and the newest of new frocks, all going to make a perfect party. The music, always the main attraction at a dance was heavenly and the supper served at mid-night, delicious.

The decorations were unique to say the least. In one end of the long room was the official crest of the Epsilon Fraternity, emblazoned in black and gold. At eleven o'clock paper hats, military effects and others were given out, and then occurred a period of confetti throwing and merriment, which continued throughout the hours of dancing which followed. A more successful party could not be.

Those who helped make the party so delightful, members of the fraternity were, Harry Wright, Bob Breckenridge, Walton Wyre, Don Cameron, Dick Gensel and William Wemmer, who had complete charge.

LUNCHEON-BRIDGE.

Mrs. M. A. Wagoner, of west Market street, entertained a number of friends with luncheon at the Lima club Tuesday complimenting, Miss Marguerite Zender, who is visiting her parents. The private dining room was appropriately decorated with daintily colored blossoms, the pink predominating. On each small table there was an attractive basket of vari-colored flowers tied with pink tulle bows. Place cards were in pink. Covers were laid for Miss Zender, Miss Grace and Miss Hec-tense Spillacy, Miss Helen Pence, Miss Marian McCoy, Miss Rose Evelyn Wagner, of Sidney; Mrs. T. R. Schoonover, Mrs. Geo. T. Glover, Mrs. Mark Kolter, Mrs. Fred Gooding, Mrs. Walter Jackson, Mrs. Henry Dessel, Jr., and Mrs. Tony Zender. Following the luncheon, bridge was the diversion of the afternoon.

"GLAD OF DAY I FIRST STARTED TAKING DRECO"

Has been a blessing to me from the very first. Relieved my headaches, constipation and stomach troubles.

Feel good all the time now, full of energy and sleep like a baby.

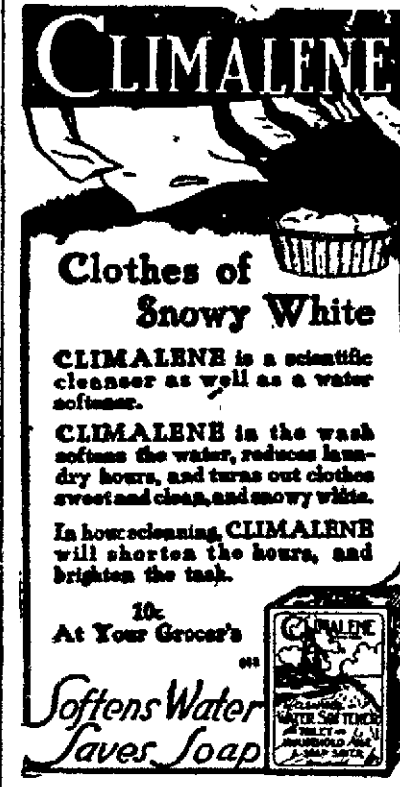

Imagine not being able to enjoy a meal for years. Wouldn't you be happy, if, after years of suffering, you finally discovered a medicine that relieved your troubles? This, in substance, is the experience of a well-known lady living right here in this section. Read what she has to say. She is Miss Mardell Newport, a saleslady with the Queen Co., who resides at 941 Leonard Ave., Columbus, Ohio.

"My health has been none too good; severe headaches attended by pains in my BACK AND LIMBS, caused me much agony. I also had a distressed feeling in my stomach, and it would fill up with gas after meals, making my very uncomfortable; I often had dizzy spells which nearly blinded me; my appetite felt away to almost nothing; my breath was so foul I could smell it myself. It is really hard to describe my feelings.

"All this time I was taking different medicines, but without much success. When the new medicine Dreco came to town I was impressed by the honest, frank statements I read in the papers about it, and began taking it myself. It is hard to realize what a big change this Dreco has brought forth. It is almost beyond belief.

"My food digests perfectly, leaving no gas or pains; headaches and aching head, which has overcome the dizziness and foul breath and bad taste in my mouth. I am full of energy and am light-hearted and happy all the time. I hope every one suffering as I once did will give Dreco a trial."

Mr. Stout, the well known Dreco expert, has headquarters at Baldwin's Central Drug Store, to meet the local public and explain the merits of this great remedy. See him today.

BETTY FAIRFAX'S READY ADVICE

Chats With the Love-Lorn Answers to Missives

Dear Miss Fairfax: (1) Could you please suggest a menu for a dinner to be given after a house wedding? I am expecting only the nearest relatives, about 20, and would like to serve something that could be prepared before hand in order to save a rush at the last minute. What would you suggest for a drink? Coffee or something cold?

Ans.—A good menu, most of the ingredients of which can be prepared in advance, is fruit cocktail, creamed chicken with potato croquettes and hot rolls, cheese salad with salted crackers, ice cream, bride's cake and coffee. For cheese salad wash a crisp tender lettuce, arrange for individual serving and sprinkle freely with grated cheese. Dress with mayonnaise and garnish with sliced lemons.

(2) Would favors and place cards be appropriate, if so, what kind? M. H.

Ans.—Place cards would be convenient in helping the guests to find their places. Use any of the dainty cards to be bought at the stationery counter which are appropriate for a wedding. For favors, a monogrammed box containing a piece of the wedding cake would be sufficient.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am entertaining some friends to dinner Saturday. I wish to serve fried chicken and would like to know some of its accompaniments. Please tell me of some things that will make up a lovely dinner and yet will not be too expensive. Ignorant.

Ans.—With fried chicken serve mashed potatoes, creamed corn, not biscuits and some kind of fresh jam or jelly. For salad serve tomatoes stuffed with chopped celery, nuts and cucumbers and pour mayonnaise over the whole. Fresh fruit, ice cream cake makes a good dessert.

ALUMNI OF ST. ROSE HONOR SOLDIERS AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Thirty-Five Members Who Followed Flag In Great War, Present

MEMORIAL TO DEAD

Monsignor A. E. Manning Gives an Address—New Officers Are Elected

Members of St. Rose Alumni association held their 17th annual banquet and dance Tuesday evening at the Elks club. The affair was also in the way of a welcome home to the 35 young men of the alumni who were in military service during the war, and was postponed from last June until this month, so that practically all would have returned and have an opportunity to attend.

Preceding the dinner the annual election of officers were held, and the following unanimously elected to serve during the coming year: Edward Gallagher, pres.; Frank Barrett, vice president; Mary Kennedy, treasurer; Kathleen Corcoran, secretary; Kathleen Hanley, historian; Walter Cooney Jr., presided as toastmaster during the dinner.

The address of welcome to the graduates of the class of 1919 was given by Elizabeth Hannon, retiring president, and was responded to by Ferdinand Miller, president of the graduating class. Miss W. Thelma Spillacy gave a vocal selection accompanied by Miss Lucille Curran, and Miss Leona Peltz an instrumental number, both of which were heartily applauded. The address of the evening was given by James Horigan, who paid a glowing tribute to the soldiers in the recent war. In his address "Our Soldiers."

One of the most impressive features of the evening was a review of the history of the Alumni during the past year, given by Ruth Callahan, historian. In the view of events the historian spoke of the 35 blue stars on the service flag designated for young men of the alumni in service, and of the three gold stars in memory of three splendid young men who have paid the supreme sacrifice, two of whom are now lying buried in Flanders field.

The first to die overseas and the first Lima soldier killed in action was Corporal William P. Gallagher, a member of the class of '11, who was killed in action in the battle of Cantigny, June 24, 1918. Lieutenant Edward J. Veasey, class of '50, wounded July 15, 1918 and died in a hospital a few hours later, and Henry Mullen, recently returned from overseas who died in Dayton, June 9, 1919, from the effects of German poison gas.

The program was closed with a short talk by Monsignor A. E. Manning who has presided at all of the alumni meetings with one exception, since they were instituted.

Following the dinner, dancing furnished the diversion for the remainder of the evening, music being furnished by Fridley's jazz band. The committee in charge of the affair were: Nell Bland, Edward Finn, James Fitzgerald, Margaret Horri-gan, Clarence McCray, Catherine O'Malley, Helen O'Connor, Irene O'Connor.

TODAY—"Tom Brown's School Days," by Thomas Hughes.
WEDNESDAY—"Dombey and Son," by Charles Dickens.

HUGHES

Thomas Hughes was born Oct. 20, 1822, at Wotton, Berks. In 1834 his father sent Tom to Rugby to be under the charge of Dr. Arnold; the doctor and the father had been fellow-students at Oriel College, Oxford. Both school and master were made world-known by the book, "Tom Brown's School Days." Tom Hughes must have been very much the same sort of schoolboy as the hero of the story, but in fact, George his brother, was the original of Tom, as Dean Stanley was the original of Arthur.

Thomas Hughes followed in his father's footsteps at Oriel; he was later called to the bar, and eventually was appointed a county court judge.

His life was one of true service to humanity. Frederick Maurice was the great influence that worked upon him, and he was of the group, along with Charles Kingsley, who devoted themselves to the cause of the Workingmen's College. He sat in Parliament, always a devoted friend of his friends, the workingmen; he tried his hand at an idealistic colony, called Rugby, in Tennessee, he was a frequent visitor to America and was a great friend and admirer of

THOMAS HUGHES, 1822-1896

James Russell Lowell, whose influence over him is shown in the frequent quotations in his books. His other volumes included a sequel to "Tom Brown at Oxford," "Religio Lati," and his "Meditations of a Brother." But he will always be remembered as the same sane and great-hearted author who has understood something of the soul of a schoolboy and who has written the greatest book in English of the schoolboy's life.

TOM BROWN'S SCHOOL DAYS

By THOMAS HUGHES
Condensation by Prof. William Foxworth Harris

"Just as Tom was yawning his last mouthful (three o'clock in the morning), winding his comforter round his throat, and tucking the ends into his breast of his coat, the horn sounds. Boots look in and say, 'Tally-ho, sir, and they hear the ring and the rattle of the four last trusters and the town-made drag, as it dashes up to the Palace.'

"Anything for us, Bob?" says the curly guard, dropping down from behind and slapping himself across the chest.

"Young gent'l'm'n, Rugby," answers a hostler.

"Tell young gent to look alive," says the guard, opening the hind-hood and shooting the parcels in after examining them by the lamps.

"Here, shove the portmanteau up a-top—I'll fasten him presently. Now there, sir, jump up behind."

"Good-by, father—my love at home." A last shake of the hand. Up goes Tom, the guard catching his hat-box and holding on with one hand, while with the other he claps the horn to his mouth. "Toot, toot, toot!" the hostlers let go their heads, the four boys plunge at the collar, and away goes the Tally-ho into the darkness, forty-five seconds from the time they had pulled up.

So Tom Brown started to begin his school-days at Rugby when William the Fourth sat upon his throne. Squire Brown had meditated something as follows the night before: "Shall I tell him to mind his work and to make himself a good scholar? Well, but he isn't sent to school for that—at any rate not for that much. I don't care a straw for Greek, parables, or the digamma, no more does his mother. What is he sent to school for? Well, partly because we wanted so to go. If he'll only turn out a brave, helpful, truth-telling Englishman and a gentleman and a Christian, that's all I want." Upon this view of the case he framed his last words to Tom. "And now, Tom, my boy, remember you are going at your own request, to be clucked into this great school, like a young hen with all your troubles before you—rather than we should have sent you perhaps." (Tom was nine.)

"If schools are what they were in my time, you'll see a great many cruel blackguard things done and bear a deal of foul bad talk. But never fear. You tell the truth, keep a brave and kind heart, and never listen, or say anything you wouldn't have your mother and sister hear and you'll never feel ashamed to come home, or we to see you."

Tom's father was a great asset to the boy. For though he belonged to what is called the upper middle class, the opinion which the squire loved to propound above all others was the belief that a man is to be valued wholly and solely for what which he is in himself for that which stands up in the four thickly walls of him, apart from clothes, rank, fortune, and all externals, whatsoever. He held further that it didn't matter a straw whether his son associated with lord's sons, or plebeian's sons, provided they were brave and honest. So Tom had a merry and right democratic time with the boys of the village, and learned much that stood him in good stead when he got to Rugby, among other things to value man or boy wholly for what was in him, whether it was Harry Winburn, the quickest and best boy in the parish, who taught him the furs and holds which later carried him through his great fight with the bully of Rugby, or poor Jacob Doodle calf (as the boys nicknamed him), in whose hands everything came to places and in whose head nothing would stick, or Job Ruckin whose scandalized mother demanded, on the occasion of a visit from Madam Brown, "Job, Job, where's thy cap?"

"What? didn't you see me, mother?" replied Job, slowly extricating one hand from a pocket and feeling for the article in question; which he found on his head and left there, to his mother's horror and Tom's great delight.

Rugby was a new world for Tom. He was a sturdy and combative archer, able to fend for himself on his own death, yet it was a great boon for him that he fell into the hands of a boy of his own age, but a bit ahead of him at Rugby. The first sight he encountered on his arrival was a lordly crowd of youngsters who looked quite as if they owned the place. One of these young heroes ran out from the rest and accosted Tom. "I say, you fellow, is your name Brown?"

"Yes," said Tom, in considerable astonishment, glad, however, to have lighted on some one already who seemed to know him.

"Ah, I thought so; you know my old aunt, Miss East; she lives somewhere down your way in Berkshire. She wrote to me that you were coming today, and asked me to give you a lift. You see," said his friend as they strolled up towards the school gates, "a great deal depends on how a fellow cuts up at first. If he's got nothing odd about him, and answers straightforward and holds his head up, he gets on. You see I'm doing the handsome thing by you, because my father knows yours; besides I want to please the old lady. She gave me half-a-sov. this, and perhaps'll double it next if I keep in her good books."

This began a friendship which lasted through all their school days and meant much to both of them. Friendship and loyalty and good sportsmanship are great features in this book, which shows an insight into the brain and heart of a boy which is just as wise in the year of our Lord 1919 as it was in the days of William the Fourth. Tom and East were together in games, in mischief, in fights, in good deeds, or in deviltry, as they were in ingenious syndicated methods of working out the mysteries of the Greek and Latin languages. And years later, when the wise "Doctor," Arnold of Rugby, decided that Tom was headed towards destruction, it was by means of friendship for a weaker boy who needed his protection that he rescued him. What was the marvel of the Doctor's power over boys? "We couldn't enter into half that we heard; we hadn't the knowledge of our own hearts or the knowledge of one another, and little enough of the faith, hope, and love needed to that end. But we listened, as all boys in their better moods will listen (aye and men too, for the matter of that), to a man whom we felt to be, with all his heart and soul and strength, striving against whatever was mean and unmanly and unrighteous in our little world. It was not the cold clear voice of one giving advice and warning from serene heights to those who were struggling and sinning below, but the warm living voice of one who was fighting for us by our sides, and calling on us to help him and ourselves and one another. And so, wearily and little by little, was brought home to the young boy, for the first time, the meaning of his life, that it was no fool's or sluggard's paradise into which he had wandered by chance, but a battlefield ordained from of old; where there are no spectators, but the youngest must take his side, and the stakes are life and death. And he who roused his consciousness in them showed at the same time, by every word he spoke, and by his whole daily life, how that battle was to be fought; and stood there before them their fellow-soldier and the captain of their guard. The true sort of captain too, for a boy's army, one who had no misgivings and gave no uncertain word of command, and let who would yield or make a truce, would fight the fight out (so every boy felt) to the last gasp and the last drop of blood."

And so Tom lived his life from the first green days to the last memorable night, when he was "chained" round the quadrangle by the eleven, shouting in chorus, "For he's a jolly good fellow," himself as great a boy as all the rest, despite the passage of the years and his dignity of captain. It is a story of humanness, with all its good points and its frailties, but especially of loyalty and of friendship; of games so much like our own in spirit, and yet so different in details, of East and Arthur, of the brutalities of the old fagging system, the school bully and Tom's classic fight with him, of the final war of independence against what was mean and sordid.

"I want to leave behind me," said Tom, speaking low, "the name of a fellow who never bullied a little boy, or turned his back on a big one." And then, "I would sooner have the Doctor's good opinion of me as I really am than any man's in the world."

DELPHOS

TO FLY DELPHOS TO JONESVILLE, VA

DELPHOS, Sept. 3.—Certificates to teach in the Delphos city schools were granted to 16 applicants at an examination which was held at the Jefferson school Saturday. Ten of these were elementary certificates for one year, two elementary certificates for three years and four for high school.

Those granted one-year elementary certificates were Misses Florence Hicks, Lois Wolfe, Mildred Richardson, Blanch Clark, Ruth Werner, Holden. Those receiving three-year elementary certificates were Misses Lucile Lindemann and Edwin Granger. The four granted certificates to teach in high school were Fred C. Snodgrass, Eugene Mulholland, Lawrence Munk and Miss Lucia Atchison.

Mr. Runser will fly from Delphos to Jonesville, Va., where he is scheduled to appear at the fair on Sept. 10. From there he will go to Asheville, N. C., and then on to Raleigh, where he is to fly to the North Carolina State fair. In his flight he will be required to cross the Cumberland and Blue Ridge mountains. Lt. Runser finds it impossible to get shipping accommodations for his plane and is therefore forced to make the entire trip through the air.

A party of local men left Saturday for Grand Rapids, Ohio, where they will spend the week and endeavor to lessen the flun, population of the Maumee river. The party is composed of R. L. Jauman, Sil. Grothouse, A. C. Weger, Jos. Weisberger, A. F. Lindemann, Dr. D. J. Clark and Dr. Small, of Chicago. It is said that Dr. Clark will act as cook on the expedition and the boys are by no means certain of the results.

The elevator which has been erected by M. B. Lindemann, of this city, at Scott's Crossing has been completed and will be opened for business Wednesday, September 3.

The elevator was moved from Roehm, where Mr. Lindemann formerly conducted it, because of the discontinuance of the Findlay, Ft. Wayne & Western railroad.

The public schools opened for a new year's work Tuesday morning. Although a number of teachers had resigned from the corps, Supt. Hick had been successful in filling the vacancies and school opened with all positions filled.

The exact enrollment for the new year is not yet available but it is believed to be about the same as that of last year. A good attendance was noted the first day in both high school and the grades.

ST. MARYS

REWARD OFFERED FOR STOLEN FORD

ST. MARYS, Sept. 3.—Raymond Glass offers a reward of $50 for the recovery of his Ford touring vehicle, stolen Monday night, September 1, 1919, and for the arrest of the thief. The vehicle was left standing on South Front street between Spring and South streets. It was missing after Mr. Glass returned after about an hour. The conveyance is a 1920 model. The motor number is 3,247,379; license number, 480,372.

Sergeant John Kouacung, Corporal H. S. Lewis and Private W. A. Spry, of the Lima recruiting station, are in the city and will remain here for the rest of the week securing men between the ages of 18 and 40 for enlistment in the regular army.

The armory made a fascinating appearance Monday with its decorations of snowy white, as the army of soldier boys, sailors and nurses filed in to partake of the special courtesy extended to them by the Community Welfare association.

Still numbered among the active and enterprising citizens, Henry B. Smith, today, Tuesday, September 2, 1919, reached his 51th birthday anniversary.

Henry B. Smith is a native and one of the best known citizens of St. Marys township. At the present time he is serving as a member of the St. Marys township board of trustees.

VICTORY DAY AT VAN WERT'S FAIR

VAN WERT, Sept. 3.—Today will be Victory Day at the fair, in honor of the soldiers and sailors of Van Wert county, who served in the World War, with the Civil War soldiers and the Spanish-American War soldiers present as guests. The event, under the auspices of the County Council of Defense and the County Agricultural Society, is intended to provide occasion for general meeting of the soldiers and sailors at which they will again receive assurance of how highly pleased the home folks are of their return to native soil.

The Van Wert County Child Welfare League has opened a booth at the county fair, in art hall, where electrical apparatus and other devices used in the treatment of diseases of children are on display. The exhibit contains also, literature and other valuable information. The members of the league are invited to make use of the booth as a rest room while attending the fair.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Methodist church at Middleport for Mrs. Zora Bennett, well-known resident of that town who died at her home Sunday. Mrs. Bennett, at the time of her death, was 66 years of age and was well known and highly respected in a wide circle of warm friends.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning from Gamble's Chapel on South Washington street for John Fish, who died at the Van Wert county hospital Monday morning following an illness with bowel trouble.

HIS NERVE FORCE SLOW TO RETURN AFTER THE "FLU"

But Nerv-Worth Soon "Made It Gain Every Day," Says James W. Kinnell.

This well known resident of Greensburg, Pa. makes a statement here which a host of sufferers from flu after effect, should promptly profit by. This is what he said a few days ago to Greensburg's Nerv-Worth druggist.

H. J. Weighman—I had a very severe attack of the "flu." It left me in a very nervous and weakened condition and I did not seem to be making any progress in regaining my nerve force and strength until I took Nerv-Worth. Its use placed me on the way to recovery and I am gaining every day. I want to recommend it to others in the same condition.

JAMES W. KINNELL, 213 Park St., Greensburg, Pa. Nerv-Worth whets the appetite, adds flesh, aids digestion, steadies and strengthens the nerves, rouses to liver, restores restful sleep banishes sick and nervous headache and other aches and pains, builds up run-down systems. If it does not do this for you, your dollar back.

Then Ninth Inning Endeavor or Goes For Naught and Cincy Captures Struggle, 4 to 3

Chicago's Cubs tried desperately yesterday to cause anxiety to the Reds and to the entire population of Cincinnati and adjacent territory, but, although the north siders raised quite a stir in the ninth inning, Pat Moran's pennant chasers breezed through with the game, 4 to 3, and increased their lead over New York, which was idle because of rain.

If it hadn't been for that ninth round it would have been an exceedingly tame contest, because the Reds' lopped upon Nick Carter for three runs in the first and one more in the third and held command all the way, while Ray Fisher fired a spitter at Mitchell's men with deadly effect clear up to the last round.

STAR PLAYERS WILL NOT BE DRAFTED

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Club owners of the National and American leagues will not draft star players from the minor leagues this fall. This was decided tonight when the National Baseball commission recommended that the privileges of the draft be suspended for 1919 because of the uncertainty now existing between the major and minor leagues of the country. The commission ruled, however, that the major league clubs be permitted to continue the purchase of players if suitable arrangements could be made with the minor league clubs.

A. R. Tarnier, of Chicago, president of the Three-Base league and Western league, who led the fight against the practice of the major leagues in drafting minor league talent, was elated with the action of the commission.

National Commission is in Favor of Nine Game Series

Because of Record Breaking Demand for Seats Commission Yesterday Recommended World Series Be Extended to Nine Contests

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Because of the unprecedented demand for world series seats this fall, the National Baseball commission recommended that the series be increased to nine games instead of the usual seven. The proposal was sent tonight to the club owners of the American and National league for immediate ratification.

Under the proposed plan, the rival clubs would share in the receipts of the first five games instead of the first four, as in former years. The victorious team would have to take five out of the nine contests to win the world championship. Heretofore the championship was decided when one of the clubs won four of the seven contests. The players would divide their apportioned share of the five-game receipts on a 60 and 40 per cent basis, 60 per cent going to the winning club.

August Herrmann, chairman of the commission, explained that the recommendation was made for no other reason than to benefit the public by permitting a large number of persons to see at least one of the games. Although the Cincinnati club has not clinched the National League pennant, Chairman Herrmann, who also is President of the Reds, said he had received 28,000 applications for seats outside of Cincinnati.

"There are more than 100,000 persons in Cincinnati who want to see the series and it will be an impossibility to accommodate a third of them under the seven-game plan," he said. "The city is baseball wild." It seems that the entire South is planning on coming to Cincinnati if we are so fortunate as to win the National League flag.

Chairman Herrmann announced that plans for the series would not be made until the pennant races are definitely decided, which probably will not be for ten days or two weeks.

BOLEN TO COACH OHIO NORTHERN

Charles Wesley "Shifty" Bolen, local football player of renown, and an all-western end, will endeavor to whip an eleven into shape this season at Ohio Northern. If there is any sign of football material in that college, Bolen will develop it.

The Lima boy knows the game, and he knows how to play it. He was the main stay in Ohio State's eleven under Captain Chick Harley when that aggregation won the western championship.

Bolen, while a high school student, here started his football career, and since that day has become famous all over the country. He will assume his new duties as athletic director at the Ada college immediately.

With the Trotters

The pacing mare, Grace Direct, by Walter Direct, 2:05 3-4, that started out by racing in sensational time at Findlay O., meeting the last week in May, this season, hasn't been ruined by racing early in the season, in fact she has beaten a high-class field of pacers almost every week since she stepped so fast over the Findlay course. Last week at Springfield, Ill., the mare stepped in 2:00 1-2, making her one of the fastest pacing mares of all time, and seems not to have reached her limit yet. She is owned by W. H. Foster, of Elkhart, Ind., and has been the most consistent pacer of the year and has no doubt won more events than any other steeplechaser.

The trotting mare, Breda 2:05 1-4, by Bingara, has been a regular winner this year on both the mile and half-mile tracks, and last week stepped within a quarter of a second of her record over the Springfield, Ill., track. She is in the hands of Harry H. Stokes, the Springfield, O., trainer, who has won a lot of races this year. Most of his horses, including Breda, are owned by the motor manufacturer, Wilbur J. Myers.

Half mile track managers will do well to try out the new racing plan Memphis millionaire, for whom Ed Geers has raced horses for a decade or two. Jones proposes that the last horse in every heat be eliminated from further racing and his plan is to be tried out at the Columbus Grand Circuit meeting. Jones believes that much of the "laying up" so often practiced, will be eliminated, for drivers will be afraid to take a chance of being sent to the barn.

The Ohio pacing gelding, Adios Guy, 2:03 1-4, is better than ever this year and is winning every week in the east. He was sold to a Nova Scotia horseman this spring by Sandusky, O. parties, and last week was re-sold at a heavy advance to a New York manufacturer.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Fred Fulton, the American heavyweight, knocked out Arthur Townley, of South Hampton in the first round at the Olympia last night. Joe Beckett, the British heavyweight champion, knocked out Eddie McGorty, of Oshkosh, Wis., in the seventh round of their scheduled 20-round bout.

The woman was about 45 years old.

BASKETEERS ARE PLANNING SEASON

Grace Church Aggregation Has Shied Cap Into the Ring—Other Fast Teams Anticipated

(By James F. Burba.)

Behold, with the coming of the sear and yellow leaf, basket ball enthusiasts are beginning to set up and take notice. They are looking over the material of last year, and the prospective material of this year, managers who have teams selected are beginning to set aside those whom they are sure of, and weeding out those whom they are also sure of in the other direction.

Indications are there will be more interest in the basket game this season than for many years past. Practically every organization which goes in for sports of Lima will be represented in this field. Arrangements are now being made at the "Y" for a league, and tryouts are soon to start, it is understood.

Grace church is the first to announce its plans. While nothing is said, it is easy to see after looking over the Grace line up that something has changed the old form of that team. Not that it hasn't a team worthy of anything around these diggins but the old names are gone.

Burgoon will handle right forward, while Copp will endeavor to take care of the left half. Doyle, who will captain the outfit, will perform at center. Dupere and Davies will take care of right and left guards, respectively. They have already shed their chapeaux in the circles, and stand ready to meet any aggregation in the state.

Floyd Doyle, captain of the aggregation, will take care of any challenges.

While the Lima Locomotive club has not announced any plans officially, it is understood, those interested are deeply considering the talent in the ranks, and will, in the very near future, announce their hopes of the 1919-20 season.

The Gramm-Bernstein and Garford clubs are expected to be represented in basket ball this season, and will in all probability throw strong outfits in the field.

These combined with the teams of the high and grade schools should suffice for the basket ball enthusiasts, this season.

WHITNEY'S NEW HORSE NOT FAST

Harry Payne Whitney's Wildair apparently is just a morning glory. He can do anything that his stablemate Usset accomplishes in the morning trials. Six furlong trials in 1:12 2-5 are easy whenever asked during training hours, but in the afternoons his races have been dull and listless. He has been beaten twice lately on occasions when Jimmy Rowe thought him almost a certainty. It is possible that the track at the Spa doesn't suit him and that he wants only hard and fast going. He is such a good-looking two-year-old with all the conformation of a real race horse that the regulars hate to let him run loose, still he always disappoints. He sure has burnt up a lot of money so far.

REFUSES FORTUNE FOR PURCHASE

$300,000 Offer For Famous Race Horse is Refused by Owner Samuel C. Hildreth, 'Tis Said

Samuel C. Hildreth, the owner of the phenomenal three-year-old Purchase, is authority for the statement that he was offered $300,000 for his colt yesterday. The offer was made by Albert Simons on behalf of an unknown client, and it was declined.

"I refused the offer," said Mr. Hildreth during the afternoon, "not because I thought Purchase was worth that much money, great colt as he is, but because I would only get a portion of the sum under the present government tax. I realize that a man rarely ever gets or even sees a horse like Purchase, but $300,000 is a lot of money for a man in my circumstances. I have trained Fitz Herbert, Dalmatian, Friar Rock, McChesney and other great horses, but I think this is the best horse I ever had in my care."

Three hundred thousand dollars is as much as has ever been offered for any thoroughbred in any country. There were a number of offers for the Tracery colt. The Panther, in England last fall, and in order to give the public a chance to bid on him his owner, Sir Abe Bailey, put him up at auction, with a reserve of 40,000 guineas, or a trifle more than $200,000 of our money. There was no bid and the horse was passed from the ring.

The highest price ever paid for a thoroughbred in the United States was $140,000 for Rock Sand which August Belmont sold to a syndicate of American gentlemen in the dark days of racing some years ago. The late Charles Reed gave $100,000 at auction for imported St. Blaise.

WOLGAST TRIES COME-BACK, BUT FAILS

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 3.—Young France won an unpopular decision Monday in a ten-round bout with Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champion. C. J. Kelly, scout for the Detroit Americans, refereed. Sporting writers said Wolgast had the better of six rounds and the crowd of 2,500 derided the decision.

DEMPSEY MAY BOX FOR $175,000; KEARNS

DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 3.—Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, announced Monday he would accept an offer just received from the manager of Georges Carpentier, French champion, for a match in England between Dempsey and Carpentier for a purse of $175,000.

The offer was received early Monday morning by cable just as the theatrical company of which Dempsey is a member was leaving for Decatur from Detroit.

BAT LEVINSKY WILL MEET GREB AT DAYTON

Miami Club Will Stage Large Fight Card in That City September 8

An announcement has just been made to the effect that Battling Levinsky, who has staged a wonderful comeback this year, will match wits and punches with Harry Greb at the Miami club, in Dayton, Monday, September 8. The go will be staged at the Miami ball park, and should prove a wonderful drawing card for both these battlers are well known and each has a reputation.

Arrangements are being made to take care of a large outside crowd, as it is anticipated the go will draw many lovers of the fist sport from this section of the state. Interest in Pistlana around and in Dayton is at white heat over the struggle, and "benuecoup" money is being let.

G. C. POSTPONED

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 3.—Rain caused postponement of the grand circuit races here yesterday and four events will be put on today, the two-year-old trot, 2:06 pace, 2:08 trot and the 2:06 trot. The Charter Oak stake will be raced on Thursday.

TWO ARE DROWNED.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 3.—William P. Redmond, 21, and Fred A. Redmond, 19, of Canton, were drowned in Lake Cohasset, Mill Creek park, here, yesterday when their canoe overturned.

GENERAL UPRIISING ON STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Interest continued to center in Credit which made a further advance to 11.85, an overnight gain of 1/16 point. Other striking features of the forenoon which was the liveliest and most varied on the upward in almost a month, included Baldwin Locomotive, American Car, Frisco Steel, Republic Iron, Texas Company, California Petroleum, American International, American Woolen, Worthington Pump, Sumatra Tobacco and the food and leather divisions. The market was not at the one-way, however, General Motors reacting 1/16 point and Southern Pacific losing 1/16, while the steel equipment, oil and related specialties were the conspicuous features at the active and strong opening of today's stock market. Credit Steel, which had a net gain of 13 points yesterday, now added 1/16 point to this advance, while Chandler, Studebaker and General Motors, which had lost 1/16 point, were the only ones to advance. U. S. Steel was irregular within fractional bounds.

GRAIN MART UNDER BEAR INFLUENCE

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Assertions that the trend of the high cost of living had been reversed and that a considerable drop was in prospect tended today to give the bears an advantage in the corn market.

Opening prices which ranged from 2c decline to 1/4c advance with September 17 and December 13.35 to 11.35, were followed by moderate returns all around, and then by a fresh sea.

The corn was governed by the action of corn. After opening 1/4c lower to 1/2c advance, the market underwent a general decline and then made a transient rally.

Provisions sympathized with the weakness of grain and hogs.

In the later dealings pork rallied, but lard and ribs continued heavy. The monthly report of warehouse stocks was about what had been generally expected.

The corn close was nervous at 2c to 1/4c net decline including September at $1.67 to $1.67 1/2 and December $1.31 to $1.31 1/2.

Corn, September 16.71; December 11.31 1/2. Oats, September 58; December 72. Pork, September 42.00; October 37.25.

Lard, September 27.10; October 26.70. Ribs, September 21.50; October 21.47.

HEAVILY FINANCED COMPANY TAKES OUT PAPERS WEDNESDAY

Well Known Men Incorporate Knitting Mill Machinery Company

CAPITAL STOCK $300,000

No Information Regarding Plans Have Been Given Out to Public

A heavily financed company, with Lima as its home office, was incorporated in Columbus today, according to Associated Press dispatches.

The Universal Knitting Machine Company, is the title of the new institution and $300,000 is the amount of the capitalization, which makes it one of the largest capitalized companies recently incorporated in Northwestern Ohio.

The incorporators are J. E. Sullivan, postmaster of the city; Colonel A. E. Gale, safety director, and Cliff Thomas, proprietor of the Wigwam cigar store.

All three men are out of the city and could not be located to state the plans of the new company.

However, it is known that a knitting mill machine factory has been planned for some time, and the Chamber of Commerce has been taken into the confidence of the promoters, it is said.

But further than this nothing has been said and absolutely nothing could be learned today about the plans.

SOCIAL DISEASES TO BE TOPIC OF DISTRICT MEETING

Scientific Discussion to Be Held at Lima Club September 16

DR. COLE IS TO SPEAK

Gathering Held Under Auspices of State Medical Association

The problem of social diseases in this section of the state will be studied from the scientific viewpoint at a meeting of physicians from this and surrounding counties at the Lima Club on Tuesday September 16.

The gathering is one of a series planned for this fall under the auspices of the committee on medical education of the Ohio State Medical Association for the purpose of bringing to the medical profession the latest methods in diagnosis and treatment of social diseases, developed through the experiences of the medical branch of the army during the war.

A fund of most interesting information has been gathered by Dr. H. N. Cole, instructor in the medical department, Western Reserve University, who will be the lecturer.

The treatment of the subject by Dr. Cole, who has closely studied social diseases from the standpoint of mortality, shortened life, insanity, relationship to other diseases, and need for clinics, will be of special interest to the general practitioner.

Similar meetings held each year by the state medical association in the larger centers of population in the state are devoted each season to different subjects and are intended as most-graduate courses in keeping the members of the profession informed on the latest methods of diagnosis and treatment.

SUES FOR STOLEN STAMPS.
Carl A. Range, Kenton farmer, has filed suit in common pleas court to recover $200 from Clifford Black and T. W. Richards, merry-go-round operators at McMillan's park, who are now awaiting trial for the theft of three stamps and bonds which were stolen from Range some time ago.

Range avers the men stole stamps and bonds to the value of $200 and asks that property be attached as they are non-residents of this state.

ESTABLISH A BRANCH

The leasing of a new building at 306 East Market street for use as a branch cigar factory was announced today by the Lubetzki brothers and Steinkamp company. Work will be started very shortly on remodeling the building, preparatory to starting the factory, at which about 50 girls will be employed.

SUES FOR DIVORCE.

In common pleas court, Minnie Marchant has filed suit for divorce from Marquis Marchant, averring gross neglect of duty as the cause. He has also been absent from the plaintiff she states in her petition. The couple were married November 16, 1887 and have a son of age. Mrs. Marchant also asks that she be allowed alimony.

BOND ISSUE VOTE HELD UP BY FOUR COUNCIL MEMBERS

Only Special Session Can Get Municipal Lighting Proposal to Citizens

DELAIED BY RULES

Expert Gamblers is Present to Advise a sto Boulevard System Details

If the citizens of Lima are to be given another chance to vote upon the $100,000 municipal lighting system, and the $12,000 North Shore Drive Improvements bond issues, a special session of council will have to be called in order that these ordinances may be read the necessary three times, as a result of movements started in the regular session of a council last night by Councilmen Foster and Muntis.

The councilmen mentioned took advantage of the rule calling for an ordinance to be read before the body three times, unless the rules are suspended at the first reading and as a result the two ordinances will have to be read twice more, and unless a special session is called enough time cannot elapse between the last reading and the day the questions are to be submitted to the people which is November 4.

Fail to Suspend.
It takes two-thirds vote of council to suspend this rule and when Clerk Heffner read the ordinance called for the re-submission of the $12,000 North Shore Drive Improvements bond issue, Morey moved that the rules be suspended and the ordinance passed on its hearing. Killian seconded the motion. However, when it was voted upon, Foster was the first to vote against the project. He was followed by Morey and Snyder.

As a result of this the ordinance will have to have its two other readings.

Light Plan Delayed.
It was practically the same when the $100,000 municipal street lighting system was read, except that Councilman Muntis moved that the ordinance be given only its first reading. This motion was seconded by Councilman Snyder, and carried unanimously.

It is the opinion of those present at last night's session that the move on the part of Foster, Muntis and Snyder is simply a comeback at the local Citizens' Committee which was instrumental in defeating these three councilmen for the re-nomination.

G. H. Gampers, light expert, of Columbus, who made the estimate for the boulevard and municipal lighting system was present at last night's session, and endeavored to clear up the matter as to just what part of the city the proposed boulevard light system will affect. After an hour's squabble no conclusion was reached and the matter was referred back to the light committee. Neither council nor anyone present knew anymore about the matter than they did before the discussion was started.

Blames Gampers.
City Solicitor Light blamed Gampers for the confusion and declared Gampers was brought here for the purpose of estimating a boulevard light system and instead he suggested making a survey of the entire city, losing sight of the original intention of estimating a boulevard system.

City Engineer Vaughn Miller's salary was increased to $175 per month, and his first assistant will receive $135, while the second assistant will get $125. Draughtsmen will receive $100 and rodmen, $90.

WILL SIMPSON BE INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE

STRONG FEELING HE WILL CALL BLUFF OF BOSSES OF G. O. P.

Friends Said to Have Asked Harley to Retain Me-theany in Cabinet

MAYOR DOES NOT TALK

Would Make a Strong Candidate and Would Give Gang Nice Trimming

If political dope can be relied upon, the ranks of the republican party in the city of Lima have split into two factions as a result of the abrupt discarding of Mayor Ellis Simpson and the nomination instead of Colonel John A. Harley.

Rumors were flying thick and fast in the republican ranks Wednesday morning and the republican gang which has dominated affairs within the party in the city for some years has been a most interesting lot of work.

Simpson Worries Lim

Republican bosses have been sitting up nights figuring on what Mayor Simpson intends to do. The present incumbent of the office, highest in the list of Lima voters, is known to want another term. He stepped aside in the primaries when a living squeeze play was put on by the bosses, who wanted John Harley and had to find some one strong enough to sidetrack Carl R. Rowlands, who up to that time had every man the gang could bring out backed clear off the boards.

Simpson was induced to step aside and Rowlands gracefully faced the inevitable, rather than cause a serious split in his party.

But whether Simpson will remain sidetracked is another story and that is why the bosses are adding a few more gray hairs to their already plentiful repertoire.

Deal May Go On

Simpson has the trump card now and he and his advisors know it. If the present mayor comes out as an independent candidate, and it must not be forgotten that petitions are already in the hands of his friends ready to be circulated, he is sure to defeat Harley. He may not win, but he will poll enough republican votes to beat Harley—and the gang knows it.

Here is where the fine play comes in

A republican high up in the ranks of the Times right out Wednesday morning that outwits was done to induce Colonel Harley to promise to retain Al Metheny as mayor-elect in the event Harley is elected.

The threat of a home held over the heads of the bosses, so the story goes, was a Simpson's threat, who say the city will at once circulate the Simpson petition at the moment it is made.

His Real Platform

So plain, so it is said, will come out on a platform showing that he and his administration is prepared to pay for the city market and other side by side the cost of living in Lima. The platform further will call attention to the fact that the mayor grabbed off coal for Lima voters when they were freezing the federal administration even being out.

Take your cue—take it for what it is worth but don't be a bit surprised if a whole independent ticket is put in the field before the time expires in doing in the next few days.

Simpson certainly has a following

A lot of the disgruntled followers of Carl Rowlands, who are sore over the treatment the brilliant young business man received at the hands of the G. O. P., will vote for Simpson.

Will He Run?

The mayor has refused to commit himself on the subject of being a candidate. He admits on the other hand, that he is being besieged on every hand by voters who want him to kick the ruling out of the tight inner circle which absolutely holds the republican machine in its slightly cramped fist.

Draw your own conclusions, friends. Maybe they'll fix it up for that gang is a busy little set of fiends.

But maybe they won't, and if the power does to shake off the body hand and come out boldly for his own, there will be some real exciting political times about this busy northwestern Ohio metropolis.

Council to Knock Light Plant Out

If it remains for the Lima City Council to provide a way for the proposed municipal electric lighting plant, or to provide lines for a private company to merely furnish the "juice," it can be set down that "there ain't going to be no plant."

Quickly the word has been passed around that the council will sit on the project and absolutely kill it.

Whether the backers will go further and re-submit the proposition at the polls or figure out any other avenue to obtain it, remains to be seen.

COMPANY FORMED TO CLEAN UP BILLS

Money Will Be Advanced to Unfortunate Customers of Lima Stores

A new company composed of a number of Lima business men incorporated, Monday at Columbus with a capital stock of $50,000 is that of Co-operative Credit company. The incorporators are R. H. Dunn, manager of the Deisel store, C. M. Paine, James Norton, secretary of the Merchants association, Ira Longworth and H. E. Simonton.

The purpose of the company is to undertake a proposition which has been successfully tried out in many other cities, whereby deserving debtors who through misfortune, either illness or some other mishap, are unable to pay their debts, may have their bills paid promptly by the credit company.

For instance many working men find that they may owe bills at five or six different places, and do not know which to pay first.

Pay Bills Up

If they wished to pay a certain amount each place every week, it would be a long drawn out process to wait until the bills little by little at different places were paid. Thus the Co-operative Credit Company, they will be able to have all of their bills paid promptly, and instead of having to go to various stores every week, they can pay their indebtedness to the company, which will charge a low rate of interest.

Merchants to Help

The work of the company will be in conjunction with the Lima merchants, and will be of great benefit to them. Offices for the new company will be opened up within a few short time, at a place to be decided on, as the officers have not as yet been elected. Many applications have been received from various families by men interested in the company for assistance in paying their indebtedness.

Farley Company Gets Sewer Jobs

The J. W. Farley company, of Chicago, low bidders on the two new sewers to be constructed in Lima were last night awarded the contracts by Service Director Metheny. The bids for these projects were opened last Friday, and the Times then stated it was very probable the Chicago firm would be given the contract.

The Farley company was not only the lowest bidder, but was $88,138.45 under the estimated cost of the two projects. Their bid for the Collet street sewer was $52,135.75, while on the Askins sewer, it was $224,438.45.

BOY INJURED

Walter Buckley, 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Buckley, 1029 West North street, narrowly escaped noon when he became confused at the congested traffic at Main and High street and fell in front of an auto being driven by Frank Probase, 628 West North street. He was riding his wheel at the time. He was bruised about the face and body, but after having his injuries dressed by physician was taken to his home.

RENT INCREASES IN LIMA TO BEAR CLOSE SCRUTINY

Grand Jury to Investigate Increase of Prices of Residences in City

CLOTHING PROBE TOO

Dealers Glad to Show Margin Under Which They Are Now Operating

September grand jury will not only investigate the high price of foodstuffs in this city, but will ascertain why certain landlords have raised their rents, according to information received from officials this afternoon.

While on the majority of cases there are no numerous landlords who have not the price of their rented property up. It is noted that all through the war the rents remained practically the same while now with the price of everything else on the upward climb landlords have come in for their share.

No Improvements

In many cases no improvements have been made on the houses that would justify the owners in increasing the rents.

However, officials say they have ways in which they claim the same successful combat exorbitant rents.

May Reassess Property

Under the law they say it is possible for the county auditor to reassess any property at any time within the year when it is shown that the amount of which it was assessed is not the true value. Concededly if a landlord increases his rent, it stands to reason that his property has increased, and it will be reassessed at the true value.

Clothing of all kinds will also be made a subject of investigation, and according to information received today it is probable an experienced clothing salesman will be employed to add in the investigation. He will visit the stores and ascertain the purchase price paid by the dealer and the selling price. In this manner it will be easy to ascertain who is responsible for the high cost of clothes.

Dealers tell The Times they will welcome such an investigation since they show that they have close margin on which to operate. Despite the fact that local citizens are endeavoring to get officials to order a shipment of army clothes sent here, nothing has been done. Mayor Simpson, when questioned about this, declared that as far as he is concerned none will be brought here.

Club Market Flourish

For the first time in the history of the city, it is said, all of the clubs of the city are now open and the club side of the game will be a busy place. Local citizens are being urged to join the clubs and to play the game. It is said that the clubs are now open and the club side of the game will be a busy place.

New Rules For Membership of Board of Health

Dr. E. G. Burton, health officer has received notice that all applicants for membership of the Lima city board of health are to be between the ages of 25 and 40, the age limit is also urged that applicants take a three months course of study preparatory to taking the civil service examination sometime in December, to admit them to the health board. This course will start on September 17 at Columbus medical college.

Warning Given of Bogus P. O. Money Orders

Postmaster J. E. Sullivan has received notice from the post office inspectors office at Cincinnati concerning the theft from the post office at Lima, Mich., on August 18, of blank money order forms 16160 to 16200 inclusive. It is thought that these forms will be filled out and that attempts be made to cash them at stores and hotels.

One of the thieves was caught at Lima, but the others are still at large and attempts to cash some of the stolen orders have already been made at Toledo. The post office department warns the people to be on guard against these thieves, and steps should be taken to arrest the guilty parties if attempts are made to make use of the orders.
